

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT WEEK 07

The International Student Week is a major opportunity to underscore the importance of US-EG educational relations on the development of Equatorial Guinea and the mutual understanding of both countries and to promote the richness and diversity of educational opportunities existing in US. The ISW 07 were scheduled to take place on November 12-16, due the “Conferencia Economica Nacional” that will be held in Bata (Mainland) from Nov. 12-15, Embassy is tentatively arranging the Public Affairs activities for the following week, November 19-23. We have planed the listed below activities for the ISW 07:

November 19 – December 10

A Photo Exhibition in the lobby of the Embassy.

November, 19.

ROUND TABLE IN THE UNGE (UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL DE GUINEA ECUATORIAL)

TOPIC: HOW IS TO BE AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT?

PARTICIPANTS: UNGE REPRESENTATIVE, DREW CRONIN (ARCADIA COMMUNITY), MARIANO NSUE NGUEMA, MAUREEN MC GOVERN.

November, 20.

ARCADIA STUDENTS VISIT LOCAL SCHOOLS

Schools: Instituto Bioko Norte, Instituto Rey Malabo.

Arcadia students will talk to EG students about (a) their experience as international students in Equatorial Guinea, (b) how much that does help to the mutual understanding of both culture and (c) how is to be student in US?

November, 21

CONSUL MAUREEN MC GOVERN IN RADIO ASONGA.

TOPICS: The US Educational System; Requirements for student visa; Resources; etc.

November, 22.

ROUND TABLE: KNOWING EACH OTHER: US-EG EDUCATIONAL RELATIONS.
PARTICIPANTS: AMBASADOR DONALD C. JOHNSON, RECTOR CARLOS NZE
NSUGA, PRESIDENTIAL COUNSELOR MARIA DEL CARMEN EKORO, OIL COMPANIES REPRESENTATIVES (?).